-Surveys for Assurance from students, staff and parents are coming in.

-There is an EICS one coming by email and AB provincial one that is coming out in the mail.

-EICS can be seen by our administration to see the results of our comparison to other schools if we want.

-Grade 4 and 7 students and parents are the ones to receive the Provincial one in the mail.

-April is new asphalt start date with the plumbing part be first and crossing our fingers done for the kids by May.

-Open house nature, pre-k and kindergarten are going to be April 4th.

-Students will be chatted with in upcoming months about what options they want to do if academies aren't there chosen option.

-Fees will be sent out to all grade 4 to 7 families for next year's choices.

-Student numbers for academies are 63 for Hockey Academy, 4 Students for Softball/ Baseball, and 6 for Jiu Jitsu. Shooting for 20 students for one of them to be a go and they will run if they get at least 15.

-Hockey will have a form coming out about what will happen in the spring and get there feedback.

-We have more students coming that aren't apart of academies and already 10 for kinder registered.

-Pre-K we are at 10 students already for registration and EICS caps it at 18.

-Parent Council Board is being created for us by the BCBG room to promote our PAC group.

-We have a new instagram account for PAC named hr_parentcouncil

-Door Camera is now installed and doors will be locked as of Monday. School hours are when they are locked and the button must get pushed and Megan will let them in. All EICS schools will be having this extra security installed.
