Dear Parent/Guardians,

Welcome to the 2017 - 2018 school year at Holy Redeemer!

Our staff are very excited to welcome students to school on Wednesday August 30, 2017. This year we also welcoming three new teachers in Pre-Kindergarten, Kindergarten, and grade three. We are also extremely excited to introduce our new Pre-Kindergarten program that will run Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday mornings from 8:30 11:30. This year will be full of engaging programs for our students including our student government, Junior University, and our Academy Program!

To see a complete list of our staff and emails, please have a look at our school news blog at <http://holyredeemernews.blogspot.ca/>

To prepare for the first day we just want to pass on some important information. The first bell will ring every day at 8:05 and that will be a notice to students to enter the school and get organized for their day. At 8:10 the second bell will ring and students should be entering their classrooms and preparing for announcements and daily prayer. Formal instruction will begin daily at 8:15 a.m.

Students are welcome to enter the school via the front entrance on the first day and their teachers will be reviewing daily procedures for their students. We also ask that parents pack their children with a snack and a lunch that a peanut free. We are a nut aware school, and we ask that parents do their best to keep our school safe for all students. These two links will also provide parents with more detailed information:
